

Dr. Goldstein is the Ruth L Works Professor and Chairman, Department of Neurology, Co-Director of the Kentucky Neuroscience Institute and the UK Neuroscience Research Priority Area, and Interim Director of the UK-Norton Healthcare Stroke Care Network at the University of Kentucky. Dr. Goldstein focuses his clinical, research, and service activities on stroke and related disorders. Dr. Goldstein has received multiple awards for his teaching, research and service contributions including the Chairman's Award from the American Heart Association, the AHA National Volunteer Advocate of the Year Award, the William Feinberg Award for Excellence in Clinical Stroke and the Order of the Long Leaf Pine, North Carolina's highest civilian honor, for his service to the state related to improving stroke care.